Dear Mary Ann,
It's been great
knowing you this year
and all our other years in high school. I don't of dread your graduation because I you for graduation we have know how weepy we have Best of luck always, and be
as sweet as you are now.
Love,

Dear Mary Ann,
You are one of the sweetest & nicest people I know. After 13 years of friendship, you'll be the same without your always. Good luck's best wishes always.
Mary Ann
Happily!

Dear Mary Ann,
Your coming to school
this year has been really rich. Drama, the play,
the point, the group,
and just plain school. Mary Ann keep you as you are, always

DEDICATION

"And the root of wisdom never fails."

To the Sisters and teachers of Siena whose knowledge and understanding have guided our high school years, we, the Graduating Class of 1961, fondly and gratefully dedicate this book.

Sister Mary Veronita, assistant principal; Sister Mary Giovanni, superior; and Sister Mary Inviolata, principal; who have nourished this root of wisdom with patience and understanding.

Through the guidance of the senior homeroom teachers (front) Sister Mary Irene, Sister Mary Gregory, Sister Mary Alfred (back) Sister Mary Constance, Sister Mary Isabel and Sister Mary Fabian we have been directed towards spiritual success and maturity.

"That we may learn wisdom and not fail from it."

Organizations for Unity and Loyalty

"We, the students of Siena High School, under the guidance of the Blessed Virgin Mary; in order to form a more perfect bond of cooperation between students and faculty, to aid in the development of loyal, constructive school spirit, and to further the development of moral character, do ordain and establish this constitution of the Student Council of Siena High School."

Carrying on these aims under the guidance of Sister Mary Alberta, the three senior officers of the Student Council, Theresa Sloan, Mary Kay Emerson and Mary Ann Miles, president, prepare new business for their next meeting. Since the Student Council was founded in 1951, it has played an active part in student life, taking responsibility in homerooms and in the halls.

Another organization responsible for student interest and activity is the Athletic Association. With fare from basketball to ping-pong, the AA offers activities for everyone. The AA officers are Mary Finnegan, president; Virginia Hopkinson, Geri Mayer, Ellie Radke, Pat Alario, Nancy Flaiz, with Roberta Heine, Bowling Club president, and Gerry Flavin, Tumbling Club captain.

Sodality Prefect Mary Burke appears somewhat startled at a suggestion by junior officer Rita O'Sullivan. Looking on with amusement at Mary's reaction are other Sodality officers Mary Kay Dwyer, Karen Barnell, Jo Ann Riordan, Ruthmarie Wiemann, Alice Brosnahan and Mary Lou Tunno.

Prepared for the annual Roman banquet are the senior members of the Latin Honors Club: Martha Shaughnessy, Irma Williams (president), Ruthmarie Wiemann, Maureen Topping and Maureen Kilmer.

With screams of Bravo! El Toro! and Ole! ringing in her ears, the brave matador (Ellie Radke) prepares to meet the bull (Grace Girdvain), as Maria (Kathy King) and Pedro (Cheryl Fasano) lend encouragement.

La France est le pays ettonnant! "France is a wonderful country" seems to be the uppermost thought in the minds of Irma Valentino, president, Mrs. Loughran, moderator, and Judy Sinclair as they focus their attention on the abundance of maps, books and travel posters at the French Club meeting.

*I give up!
what else can I do after four years of High?
I hope I see you again
often.*
Grace Girdvain

German Club prepares for class by peeking over President Roberta Roubik's shoulder at the textbook. Peepers are Dangy Antanitas, Mary Therese Keating and Milda Sapolas.

While Miss Zapatka, moderator, gives some helpful pointers, the five Senior Sienan editors busily work to beat a swiftly approaching deadline.

The Siena Chapter of the National Honor Society is the most important educational organization in our school. Membership in this organization is a great privilege. Under the guidance of Sister Mary Veronita, the officers, Virginia Hopkinson, Madeleine Van Hecke, Carol Gallotta and Amy Kirby prepare for the monthly meeting.

Taking a moment's rest from their vocalizing are the Glee Club officers Nina Cannizarro, Barbara Fisher, president, Judy LaRose, Kathy O'Hara and Mary Ellen Robb.

The Library Club officers: Gerry Flavin, Anne Keller, Julie Kernaghan, Donna and Diane Fornek salute the 1960 presidential campaign with an elephant, a donkey and a special display of books on and by the two candidates.

Trying to explain what's wrong to Judy Sinclair is Mr. O'Mara, moderator of the Math Club. The other officers, Betty Loner, president, and Kathy Wenzel, look on and smile knowingly.

"Since we knew you were coming we baked a cake" is the greeting of the Junior Red Cross. The officers Eleanor Husslein, Bonnie Nemec, president, and Pat Migneault along with Miss Flanagan, their moderator, are tempted to sample their product.

Siena has formed a new organization this year for girls interested in science. The officers are shown drafting their constitution. They are: Kathy Swieton, Mary Ellen Robb, Maureen Topping, president, and Kathy O'Keefe.

"Beauty is in the eye of the beholder," explains Sister Mary Charitina to some members of Aesthetikos, the Fine Arts Club. Peggy Jo Coit, Annette Forte, Judy Bolles, Barb Scalzo and Madeleine Van Hecke.

In Memoriam

During the summer of sophomore year Mary Kelly, who was to graduate with us in '61, died.

Philosophers say that everybody who you meet effects your life in some way, maybe, only a small way. Mary certainly proved this to be true when she visited us bringing joy and a smiling face.

Ring Day

— when we received the official trademark of a senior (Father Eugene Lyons was the special speaker at our Ring Day Ceremony).

The Tree Trimming Party — when we suffered cold and snow to participate in the spirit of Christmas.

Big Sister Day

BIG SISTER DAY gave these freshies (played by seniors Mary Ann Sherlock and Maureen Dowling) an insight into the functions of the Student Council. Mary Anne Miles, Theresa Sloan, Mary Kay Emerson, Betty Pendola and Pat Abbate gladly answered their questions.

"Stick with Dick!" — "Let's back Jack!" were chanted through Siena's auditorium in the rally for the presidential campaign.

The Cradle Song

Some of the girls who demonstrated their skill with make-up were Pat Stanton, Judy Biondi, Kathy Daly, Maureen Deasy, Virginia Newhart, Mary Lou Tuno, Kathy Knobloch and Nadine Stanley.

The stage crew under the direction of Theresa Sloan, stage manager, made sure every performance went smoothly. Shown setting the stage for rehearsal are Margaret O'Brien, Joan Antinozzi, Linda McCarthy, Theresa Sloan, Pat McAndrews, Pat Alario and Madeleine Van Hecke.

The nuns tearfully watch as Teresa bids good-bye to her "mother" Sister Joanna of the Cross.

Some of the girls who helped to make the senior play a success were Diane Krueger, Bonnie Nemec, Kitty Reilly, Pat McCarthy, Phyllis Baldassari, Pat Cameron, Nadine Stanley and Pat Stanton.

"A baby," smile the novices, Laurette Flynn, Frances Cragen, Mary Ann Keifer and Nancy Flaiz as they see the new addition to the convent.

"Camera shy, eh?"

"Please don't mock me anymore!"

"Get ready, get set . . ."

"How'd you say you did it?"

"Now, Father!!!"

"What do we do next?"

"But I don't want to leave the point!"

"This time I WON'T FALL!?"

"Not like yours!!!"

One of the nicest experiences we've had at Siena has been becoming acquainted with Father Haubold, our spiritual director. He has provided the necessary spiritual guidance and has always served as a ready and sympathetic listener. His sense of humor is visible whether in class, the cafeteria, or on a ski slope. Father Haubold is a terrific person, a wonderful friend.

Prom

A dream, only an impression, remains after the long weeks of preparation; yet, the memory will always be with us. How can we forget the dreamy night, the filmy formals, our favorite escorts. Early morning breakfasts, cocktail parties, colorful corsages, the view of Chicago from the windows of the Furniture Mart — all these lend tiny fragments to complete the illusion created by "Winterlude."

May Crowning

Every year Sienans show their devotion to the holy Mother of God in the May Crowning. Shown placing the crown on Mary's head is the Sodality Prefect Mary Burke.

The honor of participating in the Saint Thomas Symposium was shared by the following girls: standing, Irma Valentino, Amy Kirby, Margaret Mary Lynch, Maureen Topping, Karen Waak, Anne Hennessey, Mary Kay Emerson, Mary Therese Keating, Pat Stanton; kneeling, Mary Anne Miles, Madeleine Van Hecke, Annette Forte, Betty Loner and Judy Baker. However, all could not win first prize, which went to Amy Kirby.

Indeed, this has been the year of Siena firsts. The first year for this book, the first year Siena has been privileged to have an exchange student all the way from Chile. Although Sonia stayed with us for only six months, in that short time she had captured the hearts of us all and won the title "Senior Sienan."

Dear Nef -

You'll always be my little Nef. I'll never forget you. Thank you so much for being such a wonderful assistant editor. I'll miss you.

Love always

Sam.

Dear Mary Ann
I hope you have success in any thing you do because you deserve
it. Lots of love and luck
